G-Invoicing Update

GPO Financial Documents Repository

November 8, 2023

Robin Bilger, Don Bartolomei, Joann Sharp
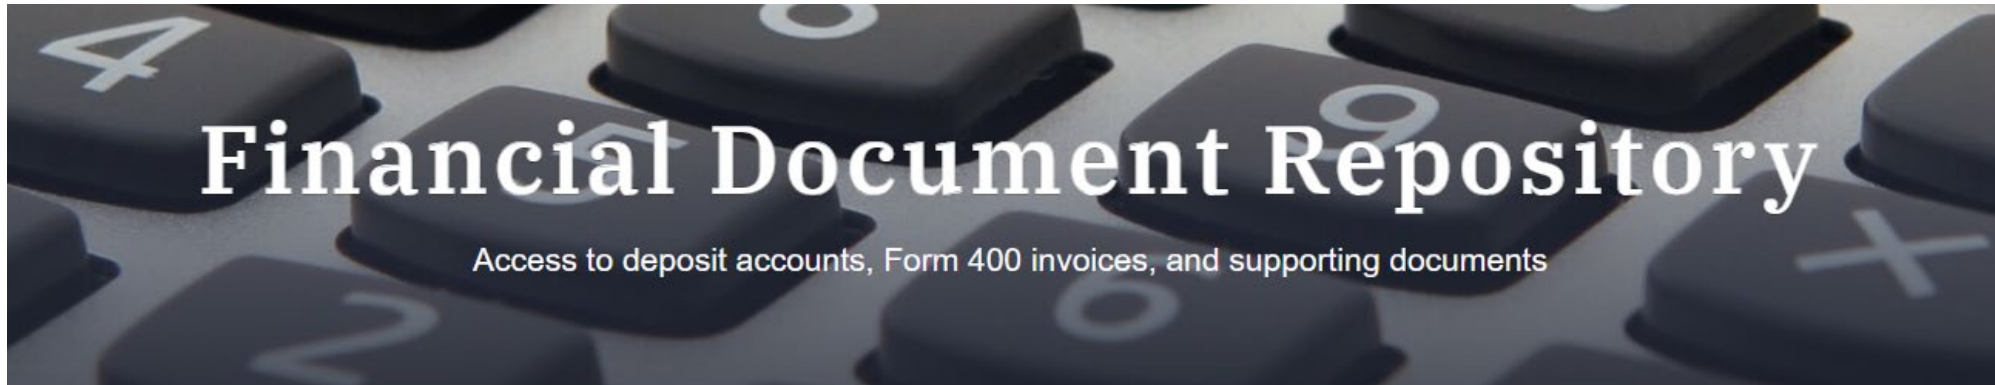

G-Invoicing (GINV) Readiness for FY24

- GPO has begun working with our initial pilot agencies on General Terms and Conditions (GT&Cs) and Advanced Orders. We anticipate expanded support for all other GPO customers in early calendar year 2024.

- GPO is in the process of developing our 7600EZ solution for GPO Print/Publishing Services. Release date to be determined.

- As Fiscal Service moves towards retiring IPAC processes, all legacy IPAC billings must be complete by September 30, 2025, or will be considered In-Flight Orders.

- GPO G-Invoicing webpage: https://www.gpo.gov/how-to-work-with-us/agency/g-invoicing

![Federal Publishing Council logo](US flag circle) FEDERAL PUBLISHING COUNCIL

GPO Financial Documents Repository (FDR)

- GPO is pleased to announce the release of our enhanced GPO FDR application
- https://financialdocuments.gpo.gov/

Financial Document Repository
Access to deposit accounts, Form 400 invoices, and supporting documents

Welcome to the new Financial Documents Repository!

The FDR provides registered users with online access to transaction data and the status of advanced funds.

On Monday, October 30, 2023, the FDR site transitioned to the new enhanced interface Customers should have received an email from FDRepository@gpo.gov with instructions on how to log in. Below are instructions on logging in for the first time, "First Time Logging In, Follow These 5-Step Instructions."

GPO Financial Documents Repository (FDR)

What's new?

- Support for two types of Deposit Accounts: Legacy and G-Invoicing

- Allows customers to use their current Deposit Account Billing Address Code (BAC) to establish a G-Invoicing Deposit Account

- Single sign-on using GPO's Identity Management Service (GIMS)

Benefits of using

- Smooth transition to G-Invoicing

- One single login for FDR and GPO Publish using GIMS

- Improved visibility and faster account reconciliation

- Ability to control and share access within your Agency

- Access SF-1s and Form 400 invoices, including historical content

GPO Financial Documents Repository (FDR)

- GPO will be hosting webinars in the coming months
- Please direct questions to FDRepository@gpo.gov

Questions or Concerns

Contact the GPO G-Invoicing Team

GINV@gpo.gov

https://www.gpo.gov/how-to-work-with-us/agency/g-invoicing